

NATIVO

L O D G E

Awaken your curiosity. Stir your imagination. Rediscover the essence of travel.

Nativo Lodge of Albuquerque stands apart as a place of uniqueness and discovery. A place where guests can feel the warmth and vibrancy of centuries of history, heritage and diverse cultures that define Albuquerque. Where native colors and elements of nature combine to capture your senses. Where works of art, video and lighting technology create an atmosphere of exhilaration and entertainment within a hotel of contemporary style and feel. Where originality and distinction in a hotel can still be found. Experience it for yourself. Conveniently located off the Pan American Freeway, NE (I-25) at San Mateo Blvd, adjacent to Journal Park and minutes from major corporations, cultural attractions and the International Balloon Fiesta Park.

Accommodations

146 exquisitely designed guestrooms and suites all reminiscent of the Native American style with striking Navajo chief's blanket design carpeting and artwork. Guestroom beds are luxurious with the highest quality bedding, fabrics and pillows to ensure a restful experience.

Dining & Entertainment

Enjoy a 'made from scratch' breakfast experience at our Spirit Winds cafe. Sample our local seasonal items and a variety of entrées with Southwestern flare. Relax with a signature margarita as you listen to enchanting music in our colorful Nativo lobby lounge.

MEETING AND BANQUET FACILITIES

For groups up to 225, Nativo Lodge offers 11 distinct meeting spaces. The Tewa ballroom, which can be separated into three distinct meeting spaces is perfect for large meetings or special events and our Mezzanine area is a wonderful open space for a more non-private event. We offer the Pinon, Sabina, and Chamisa meeting rooms for small more private meetings and our small but comfortable Alameda and Mirasol Boardrooms.
