The National Institute of Flamenco announces:
Hotel Albuquerque at Old Town's new in-house Tablao
Performance Space Opening in Summer of 2016
Will Feature Flamenco Year-Round

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – (NOVEMBER 2015) – The National Institute of Flamenco (<http://www.nationalinstituteofflamenco.org>) in partnership with Heritage Hotels & Resorts (<http://www.hhandr.com>) is proud to announce the opening of an in-house flamenco tablao, an intimate performance space, at Hotel Albuquerque at Old Town (<http://www.hotelabq.com>). This space marks the beginning of a new 10-year partnership between these two entities, dedicated to supporting flamenco artistry.

This unique tablao is expected to be inaugurated in June of 2016 with Annual Festival Flamenco de Albuquerque, now in its 29th season. This space will continuously feature artists of the highest caliber, both local and international; it will be an incomparable platform for people to see flamenco year-round.

The tablao is a model that emerged in Spain in the early 20th century as a platform to develop and cultivate the essence of the art of flamenco. The built-in intimacy between performers and artists has seen the emergence of master artists throughout generations. While accentuating flamenco's innate vibrancy and energetic downpour, our in-home venue will continue to contribute to the cultural heritage that abounds in our state; enriching the experience for both locals and visitors year-round.
